My Financial Future curriculum helps middle and high school youth develop critical skills and knowledge in money management. Participants learn about financial literacy concepts through case studies and real-life scenarios. This is the Facilitator Guide for the My Financial Future series. This book includes the answer key for all the activities in the beginner and advanced books. 92 pages. Print only.